- 2.
3. we have some new songs to preview shortly including another ZZ Top classic, a Poison classic (remember them?) and a new unplugged section featuring a song by Whitesnake and another by 80s glam rockers Poison.
4. You'll have to come and watch us to hear what they are though folks that's the deal :-). Also you may hear snippets of 2 mega famous rock songs near the end of the second set at the moment, which are great fun to play and really get us laughing! We still looking to audition potential permanent bass players, this position is currently being covered by the awesome Mike C, check out his bass solo in the middle of the song "You Really Got Me". Also in contact with some newer venues, one that has reopened again and another Oddfellows Arms, Eccles that is really going for the live music option and have some exciting plans, watch this space, come and watch us anytime , you wont be disappointed!
